NARRATIVE:

Cheryl Palmer has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 29. Her convictions include burglary, battery, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, petty theft, possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of controlled substances, false ID to a peace officer, and elder abuse. She has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 2 year term for elder abuse. Palmer was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 20, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Palmer qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for elder abuse is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
